Miami Lighthouse has planned a fun-filled day of entertainment and education. Plan on meeting our emcee NBC 6 Chief Meteorologist John Morales, learn about navigating the health care system from our sponsor Molina Healthcare, and find out about new innovative artificial vision technology from OrCam. Grand marshals will be Billy the Marlin and others.

Enjoy coffee sponsored by Starbucks and a special luncheon sponsored by Burger King where prizes will be given to the participants that raise the most funds – use the form on the back to solicit donations. We will also be raffling off many great items!
