Lunchtime bonus: Florida Legislators’ support of our Helen Children’s Music Program

Lunchtime bonus: Florida Legislators’ support of our Helen Children’s Music Program

The story of Helen Keller being blind and deaf led to a national crusade to improve the lives of all people who have disabilities. The Helen Keller Children’s Music Program, which provides music instruction to children with disabilities, is a testament to this crusade. The seminar will include a special presentation by Florida Legislators who have supported the Children’s Music Program. This presentation will highlight the impact of the program on the lives of children and the importance of funding for accessibility. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet and interact with the legislators.
